

Proclamation

Whereas, on this date, December 24, 2021, The International Association of Military Women of Color, proclaim the contributions of Chaplain (Major-Retired) Betty W. Pace, to the U.S. Military, her various organizations in which she served, including her position of Board Member of the International Association of Military Women of Color, mentoring and setting life examples.

Whereas Chaplain Betty W. Pace leaves a clear legacy that we, as African American men and women to follow and make the World a much better place.

Whereas Chaplain Betty W. Pace's faith in her Creator, leaves for the World an example to be emulated and manifested.

Whereas we The International Association of Military Women of Color, will be forever grateful for this trailblazer, who opened doors that we are able to continue to walk through.

Whereas we The International Association of Military Women of Color are committed to ensure that the legacy of Chaplain Betty W. Pace shall live on in our hearts forever.

Whereas we The International Association of Military Women of Color are committed to tell Herstory and ensure that the World knows Chaplain Betty W. Pace, her contributions to the United States Military and the doors she opened for women, and especially Women of Color.

Whereas The International Association of Military Women of Color express our sincere condolences to the family of Chaplain Betty W. Pace. Another legend has taken flight and may God allow her legacy to live on here on earth.

Signed by

Ernestine Faircloth, President
The International Association of Military Women of Color