

Dr. Karlotta Richards

RECORDING SECRETARY:

Dr. Karlotta Richards retired in 2019 after 30 years of honorable service as a Lieutenant Colonel in the United States Army Medical Corps. Her distinguished career included senior leadership roles such as Battalion Commander, Brigade Inspector General, and Department Chief, reflecting a consistent record of professionalism, integrity, and mission excellence.

Dr. Richards earned a B.S. in Psychology from Old Dominion University, followed by a Master's Degree and Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from the University of Southern Mississippi.

A founding member of I AM WOC, Dr. Richards is credited with naming the organization and shaping its foundation. She chaired the first Nominating Committee, led the development of the initial Constitution and Bylaws, and awarded the organization's first scholarships, establishing a lasting legacy of service and leadership.

With exceptional organizational and communication skills and a lifelong commitment to servant leadership, Dr. Karlotta Richards is exceptionally qualified to serve as Recording Secretary as I AM WOC continues "Facing the Future Together.