

Cheryl L. Woodhouse
CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Lead Line Dance Instructor | Forever Las Vegas FanciDancers

Cheryl L. Woodhouse is a Chicago native and Hirsch High School graduate who brings decades of leadership, service, and global dance experience to every stage she steps on.

A 26-year U.S. Army veteran, Cheryl retired with distinction as a First Sergeant and went on to serve 19 years as a Department of the Army Civilian. Her leadership roles included Personnel Administration, Security Clearance Operations, Public Affairs, and Operations Sergeant at the Infantry School.

Cheryl holds dual master's degrees in Human Resources and Criminal Justice, along with an Associate's Degree from Saint Leo College. A founding member of ITC, she has served as Second Historian and Sergeant-at-Arms and has been prominently featured at I AM WOC conferences (2023 & 2025) for her fitness and line dance leadership.

In 2020, she was honored as Veteran of the Week by The Dude newspaper in South Carolina. Most recently, she was selected as Lead Instructor for the FanciDancers Line Dance Group in Las Vegas.

With proven leadership, organizational expertise, and a passion for service, Cheryl L. Woodhouse continues to inspire as she helps organizations move forward—Facing the Future Together.
