

International Association of Military Women of Color (I.AM.WOC.) – Washington, DC, Position – Vice President, 2021 to present

Sergeant Major (retired) Pamela A. Wilson proudly served 32 years of active military service from March 1985 to April 2017 as a Religious Affairs Sergeant Major in the United States Army Chaplain Corps. She attended Basic Training at Fort Dix, NJ and Advanced Individual Training at Fort Monmouth, NJ at the US Army Chaplain Center and School. Her career was guided by her baby sister, First Sergeant retired, Cheryl L. Woodhouse as they would go on to represent excellence as sisters taking care of each other, as they navigate through the Army for a combined total of 58 years.

Her first assignment was in Wiesbaden, Germany where she was later selected as NCOIC of the largest military chapel in Europe. Other assignments include Advanced and Senior Leader Course - small group leader; project NCO for Doctrine and Training; Combat Development: Organization and Materiel NCO; United States Army Europe and Seventh Army (USAREUR)-56M Personnel Manager; Operations NCO; NCOIC - 1st ID (Fwd) in Bosnia and Senior Enlisted Advisor - US European Command. SGM Wilson attended the United States Army Sergeants' Major Academy, Class 52. Her follow-on assignment was the United States Army Chaplain School where she served as 56M, Chaplain Assistant Proponent Sergeant Major at Fort Jackson, SC; Directorate Sergeant Major for 33 Personnel Proponents managed by Training and Doctrine Command a Sergeants Major Course Instructor at the world class, United States Army Sergeants Major Academy, now known as the NCO Leadership of Excellence Center, where she instructed the non-resident course. SGM Wilson served as curriculum developer before serving as Director of the Spouse Leadership Development Course. SGM Wilson served as the first Chaplain Sergeant Major for Installation Management Command in San Antonio, Texas where she completed her military career.

For more information on SGM Pamela A. Wilson, see HerStory.