

Tammy White-McKnight

VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS:

Tammy T. White McKnight is a native of Albany, Georgia who enlisted in the United States Army in 1989 as an Administrative Specialist. She proudly served 31 years, rising from Corporal to Command Sergeant Major, the highest enlisted rank, at the prestigious 3-Star Executive level.

Her distinguished military career includes assignments in Germany, Korea, Fort Benning, and a combat deployment to Baghdad, Iraq, where she earned the Combat Action Badge. She held key leadership roles including Operations Sergeant, Course Director, Drill Sergeant, SHARP Program Manager, and concluded her career as Command Sergeant Major, U.S. Army South in San Antonio, Texas.

Tammy is professionally trained in Master Resilience Training and Human Resources Plans and Operations and is the recipient of the Major General Winfield Scott Medal, the President's Lifetime Achievement Award, and a Gold Medal in All-Army Softball.

A proud I AM WOC Trailblazer, Tammy served as the organization's first Recording Secretary for four years, supporting national conferences and signature events that strengthened community engagement and organizational growth.

With proven leadership, operational excellence, and unwavering service, Tammy T. White McKnight is exceptionally qualified to serve as Vice President of Operations, helping advance I AM WOC as it continues "Facing the Future Together."